NEW CLUB OFFICERS EVENING

Tuesday 27th September at 7.00pm

Civil Service Club, 13-15 Great Scotland Yard, off Whitehall, London, SW1A 2HJ (please note the new venue)

It was summer, it was late in the evening, you were drunk. The next morning you woke up with a nagging feeling of doom, something bad had happened. £200 for cigarettes? No! The police, no! Worse! You'd agreed to become Club Secretary or Fixture Secretary.

You tried to escape, even attended the AGM in the hope someone else would offer. They didn't (attend or offer). You tried pleading insanity, but it's football - that's never been a barrier!

There is hope out there.

On Tuesday 27th September, the AFC will hold another "New Club Officers Evening", aimed at providing an introduction to running an AFC club (including how to avoid fines!) for all new club officers (though more experienced ones are equally welcome). It's optional, and informal, and the idea is for some of the more experienced administrators to pass on their wisdom to the new guys (Fletcher and Godber in "Porridge" may be a perfect parallel!).

What We'll Cover

- |                               |                                       |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| * The Club Secretary's duties | * The Club Fixture Secretary's duties |
| * Match Days                  | * Avoiding Fines                      |
| * Reporting Results           | * Club Officers                       |
| * Spirit of Football          | * Questions and Answers               |

Whether you're a new or experienced club officer, please come along, whether to learn, or help to pass on your experience. It is optional, but we aim to make it worthwhile. Any League Officers who wish to attend are equally welcome to come along and offer their expertise.

We'll aim to be in the bar by 9pm, and hopefully in an informal setting we'll be able to help new club officers settle into their new positions.
